WILFRED PREST TRAVELLING FELLOWSHIP

Notice to all students or graduates who will be undertaking postgraduate studies at an overseas university or research institution.

Available through the generosity of Mrs Marjorie Prest, and funded by the Wilfred Prest Fund, the Wilfred Prest Travelling Fellowship is available annually according to the following terms:

1. The Fellowship is valued at $11,170 in 2011/2012.
2. The Fellowship is open to students or graduates of the University of Melbourne who will be undertaking postgraduate studies in the field of Economics at an overseas university or research institution within the period between July 2011 and June 2012.
3. Applicants must be completing a degree specialising in Economics at the University in 2011 (Bachelor, Honours, Master or PhD), or be an Economics graduate of the University.
4. The applicant can be of no more than 27 years of age at the time of award.
5. The tenure of the scholarship is for one year, and is payable in two instalments upon confirmation of acceptance and enrolment at the nominated overseas institution.
6. An extension of the Fellowship may be granted for a further term of one year, on the recommendation of the selection committee.
7. The Fellowship may be held concurrently with another award.

Applications are invited from students or graduates who meet the above criteria.

Those interested should submit an online application, (including cover letter summarising intended overseas studies, resume, student number and academic record) at:
